Holiday Week in Wichita Is a Pleasant One.

CLOSE OF THE CENTURY

Marks Solemnizing of Several Marriages

Christmas week in society was attended by an almost continuous round of pleasura. Receptions and weddings were the features of the week. Young men and ladies home from colleges and academies were entertained by their friends, while the older members of the social world also held their "affairs," which all in all Wm. C. Coleman of this city, and Miss and Mrs. Dorsey's vocal solo made the essaon a brilliant one. The Fauny Sheldon, daughter of Hon, and prosperity of the times and a general Mrs. If F. Sheldon of Ottawa, Kan, The Dr. and Mrs. Eithardson. feeling of good fellowship combined to make the last week of the century one of the most enjoyable the people of Wichita have known for years past. This week also, with its scheduled nuptials and "at homes" promises to be as great, if it does not eclipse the past week. The time-honored custom of keepng open house to receive callers on New Year's Day will probably be more generally observed next Tuesday than ever be-

A novelty, possible this season, it is said will be a number of weddings at midnight, when the old century will be buried with the past and a new era is about to begin. Word has come to the novelty, indeed.
